Chungking, 16 October (Hsin-hua) -- The Hsi-shan and the Kuei-shan Ch'u People's governments recently were able to secure a status of self-rule for the A-hsi and Sa-ni minority tribes in the I-liang Special Administrative District of Yunnan.

More than 10 percent of the 66,000 people living in Hsi-shan Ch'u of Mi-lo Hsien are of the A-hsi tribe. Prior to liberation, the A-hsi tribesmen were forced to disperse into five Chinese hsiangs and chens in Mi-lo and Lu-nan hsiens, and some 30,000 Sa-ni in Kuei-shan Ch'u went to Lu-nan, Lu-liang, Lu-hsi, and Mi-lo hsiens.

The two ch'u people's governments were formed in February 1949. Subsequently, the Yunnan Provincial People's government authorized the return of Hsi-shan and Kuei-shan to Mi-lo Hsien and Lu-nan Hsien. Lung Chieh-jen (1) /numbers refer to appended characters/ and Tung En-p'ei (2) were then elected chairmen of the respective ch'u governments.
